

November Specials in Ogunquit

November 2008

Dear Frances,

November is the perfect time to visit Ogunquit! While a beach resort town may not be your first thought for vacationing in November, Ogunquit has much to offer. Bring your dog and walk the beach. Wrap up in a warm sweater and watch the boats in Perkins Cove, our working harbor. Explore the peaceful majesty of the Marginal Way, uninterrupted by the chatter of fellow tourists. Enjoy the area events and specials, finding out the truth about where the "locals" go, and what they do in the winter. This is your chance to enjoy the calm retreat of the Maine coast; this is your chance to put your worries behind, and truly get away from it all. Look below, and you'll see: there may not be many people around, but there is still plenty to do in Ogunquit!

Sincerely,

Ogunquit Chamber of Commerce

Winner of the OgunquitFest "Greenest Scarecrow" Contest, Rivers by the Sea used dozens of soda cans to create the iridescent tail and bikini of their scarecrow mermaid!

Start thinking about the holidays at Julie's Gift Basket Party. Come join us for fun evenings with friends! Gather 5 friends, make the reservation & you will receive a free gift. Let us help you design your unique basket for hostess, corporate and personal gifts for the holidays or any occasion. Choose your theme(dinner, breakfast, spa, snack, gluten free products, etc), pick your items, containers (baskets, boxes, platters, trays & more) then as you relax with complimentary beverage and tasty treats we will creatively put it together for you. Also, we can make gifts for any occasion even for the office. Space is limited to 10 so please call 641-2522 for a fun night out on November 12, 19; December 3, 10, & 17, 2008.

Free Senior Safety Seminar. November 13, 2008, from 1pm to 2:30pm.
Component 1: In this ever-changing world, it seems that there are more and more ways to have your money stolen. Lt. Alexander will introduce several prominent phone and internet scams and how to recognize and avoid them. He will also explain identity theft, checking credit reports, and how to keep from becoming a victim of financial crimes. Component 2: We when think safety and self defense, we usually think of physical crimes. Sgt. Faia will give information on how to avoid these crimes or deal with them should they come our way. He will teach how to be aware of our surroundings, and will give practical tips on how to deal with a threatening person ... keeping in mind the physical constraints of his students' advancing age. He will show several simple moves that a senior can perform (no tossing muggers over our shoulders!), as well as providing information on chemical defense such as mace and pepper spray. Join us at the Ogunquit Welcome Center on November 13, 2008, 1pm to 2:30pm for this free informational seminar. Refreshments will be served. For more information, please call 207-646-1279.
