This Week in Ogunquit

Events & Activities

The Next Century Breakfast Tour – Thursday, April 16th, 10-11am, at Ogunquit Playhouse. For over 90 years, the Ogunquit Playhouse has been a cherished part of this community. As plans take shape for the theater's next chapter, your voice belongs in the conversation. Please come to a breakfast tour to explore the vision for the future of the Ogunquit Playhouse. View the design concepts, meet the people leading this effort, ask questions, and share your ideas.

RSVP at: ogunquitplayhouse.org/event/the-next-century-breakfast-tour/

April in Paris – Thursday, April 16th, 6-8:30pm, at Clay Hill Farm. Step onto the streets of Paris right here on the coast of Maine as Clay Hill Farm transforms into a cozy French bistro for two unforgettable evenings. Inspired by the romance and charm of Paris in the springtime, April in Paris brings together the soulful sounds of classic French music, fine food, and elegant drinks to celebrate the season. Call for reservations: (207) 361-2272.

Drag Bingo – Saturday, April 18th, 2pm, at Crew Ogunquit. Come join us and enjoy an afternoon of bingo, music and laughs in the heart of Ogunquit. Hosted by Bianca York and Gem Fatale. $10 cover.

Ogunquit Beach Earth Day Activities – Sunday, April 19th, 10am-1pm, at Main Beach with the Ogunquit Conservation Commission. Join us to participate in Earth Day activities at Main Beach including learning to attract butterflies, bees and hummingbirds, and planting kits!

Shorebirds in Maine – Tuesday, April 21st, 7-8:15pm, at Wells Reserve at Laudholm. Join Maine Audubon's Laura Minich Zitske to learn about Piping Plover project successes and challenges. Each spring, endangered Piping Plovers and Least Terns return to nest and raise their young on southern Maine beaches. They are two of Maine's most iconic and threatened bird species. For more than 35 years, Maine Audubon and their partners have worked with local residents, landowners, and visitors to ensure that endangered birds, wildlife, and people can safely share the beach.

Celebrate Earth Day – Wednesday, April 22nd, 10am-1pm, at Ogunquit Museum of American Art partnered with Great Works Regional Land Trust. Celebrate Earth Day at the Ogunquit Museum of American Art with a special program in partnership with Great Works Regional Land Trust and Coast Encounters. Participants will take part in guided, close-observation sessions, including an exploration of a touch tank. Cost: free for OMAA Members. Children under 12 & Adults: $15. Seniors (60+) & students (12+): $13

Bingo – Wednesday, April 22nd, 4:30-8:30pm, at Wells Ogunquit Senior Center. Come play and become a lucky winner! The Center's hosting bingo fun every Wednesday through November 18. Games begin at 6pm and food is available for purchase.

Pottery Painting, Sea Glass Art & More – Every Wednesday-Sunday, at The Creative Soul. Join us at The Creative Soul in Kennebunk during open studio hours and choose from a variety of projects such as pottery (take home same day), sea glass art, mosaic art & more. Located in the heart of Kennebunk Lower Village with plenty of parking. Reserve your open studio session by visiting www.thecreativesoulme.com and clicking on the "book now" tab.
