Events & Activities

Painting Workshop: Deepen Your Skills – Thursday, September 3rd, 10am-3pm, hosted by Barn Gallery. Ready to put brush to canvas? Join Pamela duLong Williams for an inspiring workshop on the art of still life painting. Oil paint lends itself to the joy of creativity. It is forgiving. It is organic. It is malleable. It is transformative. It is inspiring. For that reason, it is an excellent introduction medium to painting. Pre-registration is highly recommended. Call Barn Gallery: 207.646.8400.

Annual Mr. Gay Ogunquit Speedo Contest – Sunday, September 6th, 12:30-7pm, hosted by MaineStreet. The contest begins at 1PM on the beach, with the winner and final results announced at 5PM during the OGTea Dance. Think you have what it takes to become the next Mr. Gay Ogunquit? Interested contestants can sign up at: mainestreetogunquit.com

September Book Club: London Falling by Patrick Radden Keefe – Wednesday, September 9th, 6-7:30pm, at Perkins Cove Bookshop. Join us for our discussion of London Falling by Patrick Radden Keefe, the bestselling author of Say Nothing. London Falling is a riveting true story of a teenager's mysterious death, the secret life he left behind, and his family's search for answers—an investigation that exposes the wealth, corruption, and criminal underworld beneath modern London.
