Special Events & Activities

"Right Before I Go," launches this weekend at the Leavitt Theatre! Sunday, October 2, 3pm. The east coast tour of Stan Zimmerman's play writes, "The play brings to life the last words written in letters by individuals lost to suicide-including celebrities, veterans, children and those identifying as LGBTQ+... This production of 'Right Before I Go' will feature cast members from the popular tv show 'Gilmore Girls.'"

Doors 2pm | Play 3pm. All remaining tickets are General Admission | $40

Although this east coast tour spans from Ogunquit to Washington DC, the production and topic holds weighted space in our own food & beverage community after the passing of beloved bartender and overall exceptional human, Alex Carrier, in May of 2021. Members of Mainstreet's team will be joining us at the Leavitt as honored patrons and guest bartenders during Sunday's performance, and proceeds from our specialty cocktail will be donated in Alex's name to a nonprofit of their team's choosing. For more information visit leavitttheatre.com.

Culture & Cocktails Artist Program presented Anchorage by the Sea – October 1st – November 11th. Opening Reception, Saturday, October 1st from 4-7pm. Featuring the showing of, Astrophotography by Alan Jordan. For more information or to schedule a viewing, please contact Mary Raitt Jordan at groups@anchoragebythesea.com or 207-646-9384 x408.

Hops For Habitat- Beer Passports – Now through Monday, October 31. (Passports valid until October 31.)

Enjoy craft beer while supporting affordable housing in our community. Each Beer Passport costs $50 and entitles you to one beer at each of the participating 10 breweries. All proceeds from the passports will go directly to Habitat for Humanity home build in Cape Porpoise. For more information, visit www.habitatyorkcounty.org/hopsforhabitat2022.

Meditation with Horses at Great Heights Stable – Every Saturday, 9am. Finding Balance, Perspective, and Clarity through Horse-led Mindfulness and Meditation. This year we will be following a thematic series of sessions to build up our skills progressively in order to better connect, engage, and respond to both the inner and outer experiences we have to navigate. Email mvduca@gmail.com to reserve your spot.

Fall Saturday Garden Series at Vinegar Hill Music Theatre - Every Saturday through October 1, from 3-6pm, we open Vinegar Hill to the public with local music, food trucks, and local vendors in our outdoor garden bar. It's a great chance to experience all that we have to offer and there is no charge to attend. Bring the kids and make some memories with us!

Historic Walking Tours: Perkins Cove – Every Monday & Wednesday, 10-11am. Ogunquit Heritage Museum is proud to announce their tour of the Cove, taking you back to the turn of the last century and before. The tour offers many insights into the history of Perkins Cove and is accompanied by a brochure showing 19 wonderful vintage photographs. Reservations are required. Email info@ogunquitheritagemuseum.com or call 207-646-0296.

Children's Story Hour at the Ogunquit Library – Every Tuesday, 9:30-10:30am. Bring a blanket and join us on the library lawn to hear a story, move your body & do an activity. This free program is appropriate for ages 2-6, and siblings are always welcome. In case of inclement weather, this event will be moved inside.

SAVE THE DATE

Fall for Ogunquit – October 1st – 31st

OgunquitFest – October 21st – 23rd

Signature events are scheduled for OgunquitFest Weekend, Friday, October 21 through Sunday, October 23, with additional events throughout the month.

Signature events include our classic car show with a rock band at Main Beach, huge artisan craft fair with live music & food trucks, children's activities, Halloween-themed events, and the Dogtoberfest costume parade. We also have the unique: the High Heel Dash, a benefit for the Frannie Peabody Center. Activities and events occur throughout town all month long.
